I. Welcome and Introductions

The meeting was called to order at 1:06 p.m. Members and guests introduced themselves.

II. Approval of the Consent Agenda

Ms. Chapman reviewed the purpose of the consent agenda and listed the items therein. Ms. Winter made a motion to approve the consent agenda. Ms. Wiggins seconded the motion. All members were in favor and the consent agenda was approved.

III. Presentation – The YWCA of Annapolis & Anne Arundel County

Stacie Gold and Anna Barton of the YWCA provided an overview of the YWCA's Teen Victim Support and Delinquency Prevention Program which is currently receiving funding from the Title II (JJAC) grant program. The YWCA of Annapolis and Anne Arundel County provides victims' support services to detained youth at Waxter Detention Center. Services include utilization of the One Love Foundation's Escalation Workshop curriculum. The curriculum is a research-based multimedia workshop that includes trained facilitation and brings education and awareness to youth about the dangers of dating and intimate partner violence. The program includes weekly psychoeducational and support group sessions outlining the dynamics of power and control, self-efficacy, goal setting, healthy empathetic communication, responding to trauma in our lives, legal avenues, red flags of intimate partner violence and forming future healthy relationships. Outcomes include client satisfaction rates of 94 – 100% and increases in client knowledge in the areas of relationship dynamics, healthy partner qualities, and safety planning. For more information, please contact the The YWCA of Annapolis and Anne Arundel County and review the attached presentation slides.

IV. Roundtable

Ms. Wheeler summarized the first meeting of the Juvenile Justice Reform Council \(JJRC\), held on October 23, 2019. The JJRC is chaired by the Department of Juvenile Services' Secretary Sam Abed. The October meeting provided an overview of the Council's charge and the framework guiding the Council's efforts. A technical assistance provider will be selected at the second meeting, scheduled for November 20, 2019. Meetings are live streamed on the General Assembly website and a recording of the October meeting may be accessed here.

Ms. Shapiro noted that through the Local Management Boards, the JJRC will coordinate regional stakeholder groups and roundtable discussion forums to seek public input in all geographic regions of the State.
